

Andrew Bernish | AICP, GISP

Andrew is a member of the faculty in George Washington University's Sustainable Urban Planning Department where he teaches a Principles of Urban Planning course and co-leads an annual international planning studio in South Korea and Bangladesh. He holds a master's degree in Community Planning from the University of Maryland and a B.A. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Andrew has worked as an Associate Planner with Ayers Saint Gross and also as a state planner with the Maryland Department of Planning. Andrew served in South Africa with the US Peace Corps in the Education and Community Resource Program. Andrew serves as George Washington University's Faculty Representative to the National Capital Area Chapter of the American Planning Association and the webmaster for the Maryland Chapter of the American Planning Association.